UNION UNIVERSITY

ECCLESIASTES 4-6

4. All his days also he eateth in darkness, and he hath much sorrow and travail with his sickness.

5. Behold that which I have seen, and what I have heard, and I will tell thee: that which I have seen, and what I have heard, and I will tell thee: that which I have seen, and what I have heard, and I will tell thee.

6. Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour, that he should not beget a fool, lest he beget the fool of God.

7. For he shall not much remember the days of his life, because God hath given him in the joy of his heart.

CHAPTER 6

1. There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men.

2. A man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, so that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God giveth him not power to enjoy thereof, but a stranger eateth it: that is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

3. If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that his days be filled with good, and his soul be at ease in his burial, I say, that an untimely birth is better than he.

4. For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and his name is covered with darkness.

5. Moreover he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this hath more rest than the other.

6. Yea, though he live a thousand years, yet shall he not all go to one place?

7. All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled.

8. For what hath the wise more than the fool? what hath the poor, that knoweth nothing, better than the living?

9. Better is the sight of the eyes than wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

10. That which hath been is named ready, and it is known that it is made mighty than he.

11. Seeing there be many things that increase vanity, what is man the better? what is man in this life, all the days of his vanity, which he spendeth as a shadow?

ECCLESIASTES 6-8

CHAPTER 7

1. A GOOD name is better than precious ointment, and the day of death than the day of one's birth.

2. It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for the end of all men; and the living shall lay it to his heart.

3. Sorrow is better than laughter: for by sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.

4. The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

5. It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools.

6. For as the cracking of thorns under a foot, so is the laughter of the fool: this also is vanity.

7. Sorrow and a grief destroyeth the heart, and a better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof: and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

8. Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

9. Be not angry with the cause that thou art angry with: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

10. Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not inquire wisely concerning this.

11. Wisdom is good with an inheritance: and by it there is profit to them that see the sun.

12. For wisdom is a defence, and money is a defence; but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

13. Consider the work of God: for who can make that straight, which he hath made crooked?

14. In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him.

15. All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that prolongeth his life in his wickedness.

16. Be not righteous over much; neither make thyself over wise: why shouldest thou destroy thyself?

17. Be not over much wicked, neither be thou foolish: why shouldest thou die because of thy time?

18. It is good that thou shouldest take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw thy hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all.

19. Wisdom strengtheneth the wise more than ten might; the city.

20. For there is no earth, that doeth not curse thee: lest thou be cursed there.

21. Also take no heed of the curse: lest thou be cursed there.

22. For oftentimes knoweth that thou cursed others.

23. All this have I said: I will be wise; I will be deep, who can find search, and to see the reason of things, as a man.

24. I will be wise; I will be deep, who can find search, and to see the reason of things, as a man.

25. And I find me a woman, whose heart God shall escape: shall be taken by a preacher, counting the account.

26. Which yet is not: one man is found; but a word is not found.

27. Lo, this one hath made man sought out man.

WHO is as knoweth thing? a man's shine, and the changed.

2. I counsel t mandment, as of God.

3. Be not ha stand not in whatsoever y power; and v doest (thou)?

5. Whoso shall feel no heart discern 6. Because and judgment man is great.

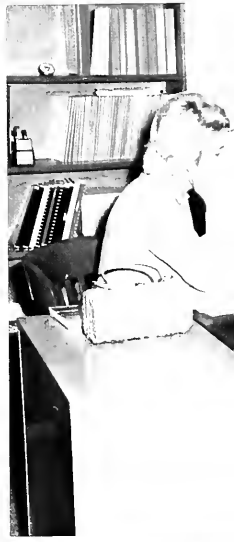

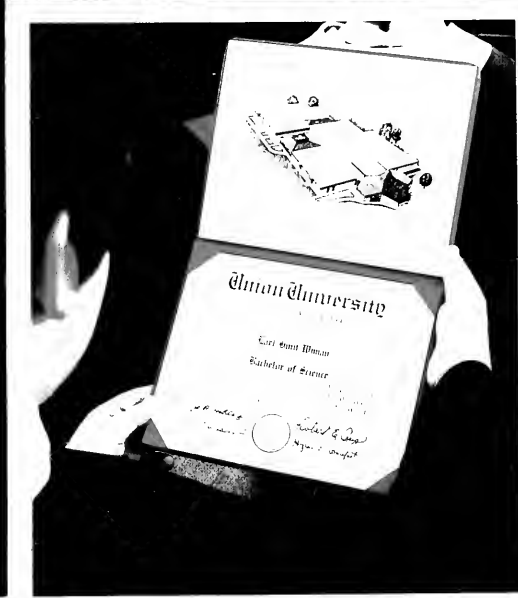

7. For he be: for who 8. There is the spirit t he power i no discha wickedne: it.

'77 Graduation Held Outside by Chapel

The Baccalaureate address was delivered by Dr. Jesse C. Fletcher, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Knoxville. The Honorable James Sasser, U. S. Senator from Tennessee, brought the June 4 address.

Winner of the highest award for Academic Achievement was Miss Karen Jackson and the Tigrett Award was given to Miss Nancy Fairless. The Honor Award was presented to Ann Goodwin Hopkins.

Baccalaureate services were held in the G.M. Savage Memorial Chapel.

Registration Is Beginning Step

The first step of fall semester 1977 was registration. Long lines, closed classes, signatures and social security numbers constituted this necessary but often trying part of the school year.

Reception Is Annual Event

At the beginning of each fall semester Dr. and Mrs. Robert Craig host a formal reception for all students and faculty. Each guest is greeted by a reception line and then moves to an elaborately set table filled with many delicious foods and punch. New faculty members were asked to serve punch in shifts and co-ed students served as hostesses for the enjoyable evening.

Retreat Highlights The BSU Program

All-Stars Win First Annual Tin Cup Bowl

On November 17, Union's All-Star Flag Football team walked away from Old Hickory Academy Stadium with a 13-12 victory over Lambuth in the first annual Tin Cup Bowl. The game was sponsored by the Lambuth Inter-Fraternity Council, donating all proceeds to the United Way.

A large crowd came out to support the team coached by Bobby Hart, intramural director. Assisting him as honorary coach was Judge Walter Baker Harris.

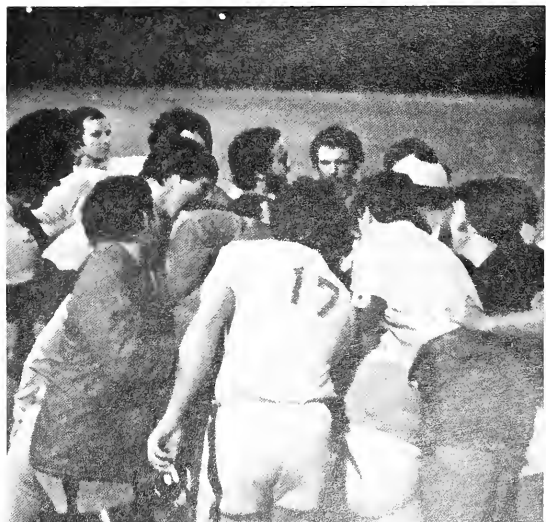

Union now possesses the trophy, but in order to secure it permanently, the team will have to win three seasons in succession.

'Miracle Worker' Sells Out All Performances

The fall drama production of the "Miracle Worker" was a box office hit for the Union University Theatre. Under the direction of new drama professor, Denise Stevenson, the William Gibson play had sell-out performances for its four day run.

The cast had faces old and new to Union's stage, and each gave outstanding performances worthy of acclaim. Portrayed well was the plight of the Keller family—their deaf, mute, blind child who was unmanageable until she met Miss Annie Sullivan.

Indeed the production had its comical moments, but those that were sad and tender gripped the audiences and held them.

'An Evening of Beautiful Music'

"An Evening of Beautiful Music" was the theme of the 1977 Campus All-Sing. The event was held on November 11 in the G.M. Savage Memorial Chapel and was jointly sponsored by Phi Mu Alpha and Sigma Alpha Iota music fraternities.

This year, trophies were not given to the winners. Instead, cash donations were given to the organization's favorite charity, along with a certificate for the purpose of display to the group.

This year's participants in All-Sing were: Women's Independents, Zeta Tau Alpha, Chi Omega, Men's Independents, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Lambda Chi Alpha, and Alpha Tau Omega. Each of the groups competed in the Large Group division and only Men's Independents did not participate in the Ensemble competition.

Much time and effort is put into All-Sing; not only by the groups who compete, but also by those who sponsor the event.

During the program, SAI and PMA presented two selections and a very special solo was given by Charlotte Leffers.

Those who were competing had a difficult task before them. The judges gave points on the basis of appearance, intonation, enunciation, difficulty of piece, interpretation, and choreography.

Winner of the Women's Large Group was Chi Omega, and of Men's Large Group was the Independent Men. In the Ensemble division, Chi Omega was first, and Zeta Tau Alpha was second.

Homecoming 1978

"Yesterday Once More" was the theme for Union's Homecoming 1978 held on February 18. A complete week of activities slated by the Student Homecoming Committee preceded the event. The committee worked diligently to make this year's Homecoming a tremendous success. Members of this committee were: Tim Seanor, chairman, David Sierk, Nancy Higdon, Glenn Moore, Norman Hill, Donna Bridgman, Brenda Young, and Jeff Moser.

Homecoming Week included a "Bulldog Caravan" to Lambuth College for a double-header basketball game, open dorms, a pep rally, and film festival. Throughout the week, commemorative T-shirts and buttons were sold to help generate spirit.

Kicking off the weekend was the second annual Gong Show, followed by the first all-night lock-in on Union's campus.

Registration began at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday for the alumni. Several hundred former Union students and friends gathered for the Homecoming festivities. Many spent the morning getting re-acquainted and touring the campus.

At 11:00 a.m. a "Greet the Profs" reception was held in the Student Lounge. During this time, the student body set up their Homecoming displays in the main corridor.

An important aspect of Homecoming for the student body was the display competition. Due to the snow, the parade that had been scheduled had to be called off, yet the floats easily transformed into hall displays.

Many long hours by the organizations involved went into the constructing and designing of the displays. The competition among entrants as well as the displays themselves added to the spirit of Homecoming.

First place went to Alpha Tau Omega, with Kappa Pi and Baptist Young Women taking second and third place, respectively. Each organization was awarded a trophy as well as a cash prize.

At the annual Awards Luncheon, Union honored four individuals who have distinguished themselves as alumni or in working for the college. Those honored were the Reverend J. S. Bell of Hindman, Kentucky, who received the Distinguished Service Award; E.T. "Rocky" Palmer of Dyersburg, received the Distinguished Alumnus Award; Eldon A. Byrd of Jackson, Chairman of Union's Sociology Department, received the Distinguished Faculty-Staff Award; and George B. Jones of Memphis, received the Honorary Alumnus Award.

The Homecoming Report of the Alumni Loyalty Fund Campaign was presented by Jackson insurance executive Joe F. Hall. Goal for the present year was set for $60,000.

Special music for the luncheon was presented by alumni Belinda McEwen, Pat Williamson Brock, Janeen Googe Smith, and Tom Hayes.

Following the luncheon was a Stage Band concert and receptions held by various organizations. A theatre production of "Never Too Late" directed by student Jane Oakley followed.

The highlight of Homecoming came with the pre-game festivities and the Union Bulldog basketball game.

Recognition was given to all former athletes and members of "Who's Who" in attendance. Dr. Craig made special recognition of those athletes who were Little All Americans and presented them along with Mrs. Gracie Williams, former faculty member, with Golden Lifetime passes to all athletic events.

Also honored were seniors Ed Smith and James Bond who tied as the winners of the Charles Schuler Award given by team vote for leadership and sportsmanship. Angela Hubbard won the Gracie Williams Award.

Rounding out the week of activities was the crowning of the Homecoming Queen, Trayce Young. Selected to her court were Donna Dodds, Susie Hromada, Ava Leathers and Pam Williams. Seniors Ed Smith and James Bond crowned the Queen and presented her with her flowers. The men of Sigma Alpha Epsilon also presented her with a gift.

Ending the evening was the ballgame against David Lipscomb College. The Bulldogs pulled an easy victory over the Bisons to bring Homecoming to a climax.

'Riders to the Stars'

On March 4, fourteen coeds competed for the title of Miss Union University. The theme for the pageant was "Riders to the Stars" and was under the direction of senior student Cindy Barrett.

Serving as Mistress of Ceremonies was Shirly Cothran, Miss America 1975. Guest entertainers were vocalists Nancy White, a graduate student at the University of Mississippi, and David Sears, assistant director for live entertainment at Libertyland. The program also included Charles Huffman and the Union University Pageant Orchestra.

Judging the competition were Mrs. Barbara Walker Hummel, Miss America 1947; Mrs. Sylvia Ikard, high school choral director; Mr. Curtis Ikard, high school band director; Mr. Steven Perry, general manager of Campbell's Incorporated; and Dr. Wiley Tatum, professor of voice at Southwestern University in Memphis.

GREEKS

Panhellenic and Inter-Fraternity Councils Represent Greeks

Representing the Greek chapters on Union's campus are the Panhellenic and Inter-Fraternity Councils. The purpose of these two organizations is to promote the benefits of Greek life.

Each group has a large role during rush. Open rush parties are held by both in which every fraternity member and rushee attends. They serve to answer questions about rush week and Greek life in general.

Both councils are made up of two representatives from each sorority or fraternity. They plan and coordinate any activities involving Greeks, especially the regulations for formal rush and membership recruitment.

Alpha Tau Omega was founded at Richmond, Virginia on September 11, 1865. It set as its goals to bring the bond of true brotherhood among men throughout the world.

The Beta Tau chapter was started at Union on February 28, 1894. From that time, the fraternity has had a successful history and an active part on the campus.

This year, Alpha Tau Omega has been involved in many activities, including the pledging of nineteen new members, All-Sing and taking part in a city-wide Clean-Up for Jackson. At the annual Sweetheart Banquet held in Memphis, Miss Krystal Petty was named the 1978 Alpha Tau Omega Sweetheart.

The five founders of Chi Omega began this sorority April 5, 1895 at the University of Arkansas. The sorority, based on six purposes, has its main emphasis upon scholarship. Chi Omega has the open motto of "Hellenic Culture and Christian Ideals." The sorority has the white carnation as its flower, cardinal and straw for its colors, and the owl as its emblem.

The Upsilon chapter of Chi Omega here at Union has been active in all campus activities and organizations. Participation in the World Hunger Drive and collecting for Happy Hollow School have been among chapter activities. On All-Sing night Chi Omega captured first place in both the Women's Large Group and Ensemble Divisions.

The highlight of the year came as Upsilon became the first Greek organization on campus to begin construction of new lodge facilities with completion due in spring of 1978.

Lambda Chi Alpha was founded on December 5, 1909. Since then Lambda Chi has become a national, and even an international fraternity, with chapters in every state of the union and also in Canada.

The chapter here at Union, Lambda Zeta Zeta, was founded in 1961 by Mr. Jerry Thompson, the first initiate and by other members from the Memphis State University chapter. The charter was received on December 5, 1964.

This past year has seen Lambda Chi Alpha undergoing many changes. Hopefully these changes are in the direction of the Christian-based fraternity which it was meant to be by its founders. The group has participated in some community activities, sponsored a talent review for St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital in Memphis, and held a Christmas party for the boys of Tennessee Sheriff's Youth Town.

At the Fall White Rose Formal, held at the Hilton Inn in Memphis, Miss Robin Hanna was named the Crescent Girl for 1978. Also, at the same formal, Gary Cole was named as the recipient of the Richard A. White, Jr., Senior Service award.

Serving as officers during the school year were: Gary Cole, president; Ken Smith, vice president; Keith Blurton, secretary; Robbie Watson, treasurer; Hugh Coker, social chairman; Gordon Johnston, fraternity educator; and Joe Mosier, rush chairman.

Zeta Tau Alpha was founded on October 15, 1898 at Longwood College in Farmville, Virginia. The desire to perpetuate friendships beyond college days was a motivating factor in the founding. The Beta Omega chapter of Union was founded December 12, 1935.

The colors of the fraternity are steel gray and turquoise blue; the flower is the white violet, and the open motto is "Seek the Noblest."

During the fall semester Zeta Tau Alpha experienced a successful rush, followed by the observance of Founder's Day and the banquet. They were active in intramurals and participated in All-Sing, winning second place in the ensemble division.

Spring semester offered the Mother-Father-Daughter Luncheon and the annual spring banquet.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon was founded on March 9, 1856 at the University of Alabama. The Tennessee Eta chapter at Union was founded a year later on July 4, 1857—the fifth SAE chapter to be started.

Dana Northcut presided over the chapter during the fall semester, and Norman Hill was president during the spring semester. These two led the fraternity to numerous awards, including the scholarship and intramural trophies.

The chapter consultant and province president both visited in the fall and were pleased at the present condition of the chapter. During rush, fourteen men pledged, raising the number of actives, pledges, and little sisters to nearly seventy.

One of the highlights of the year was the Fall Coronation Banquet, in which the queen is crowned. Miss Terry Brumley was selected queen for 1978. The highlights in the spring included Founder's Day and Splash.

Inexperience took its toll on the 1976-77 Bulldog Baseball team as they emerged from the season with a dismal 10-17 record.

Early in the season, Coach David Blackstocks's team showed great promise with a 4-0 record in the VSAC. Yet, hopes for a conference playoff were shattered by a seven-game losing streak.

Union did not pull away from the year disappointed, as three team members, Mark Weidemaier, Scott Butler, and Mickey Thomas were selected to the AU West Tennessee College All-Star Team.

For the 1977-78 season, Coach Blackstock feels that with the returning talent and prospective recruits, Union could be a contender for the 1978 VSAC crown.

Bulldogs Streak to Winning Season

Hampered by graduation losses, the Union Bulldogs were counted out by many this year. However, they fooled everyone by streaking to one of their best seasons in the last ten years. Without a senior in their starting lineup, the young Bulldogs proved that they could compete with anyone.

In the season opener, Lee College came to Jackson hoping for an upset, but the Bulldogs were ready with the tip-off as they blitzed to a 107-86 victory. Team play was the key with six men scoring in double figures.

Tennessee Wesleyan then came to town but found the Bulldogs too much for them as they were defeated by Union 92-85.

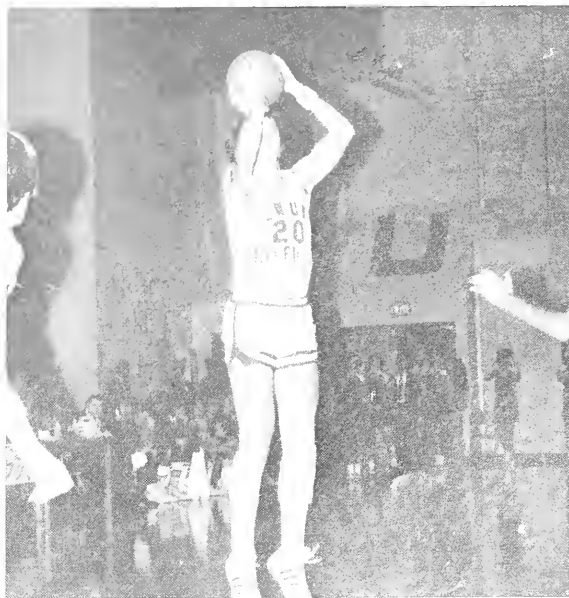

Lloyd cinches a lay-up.

Future Unionites help to boost the spirit.

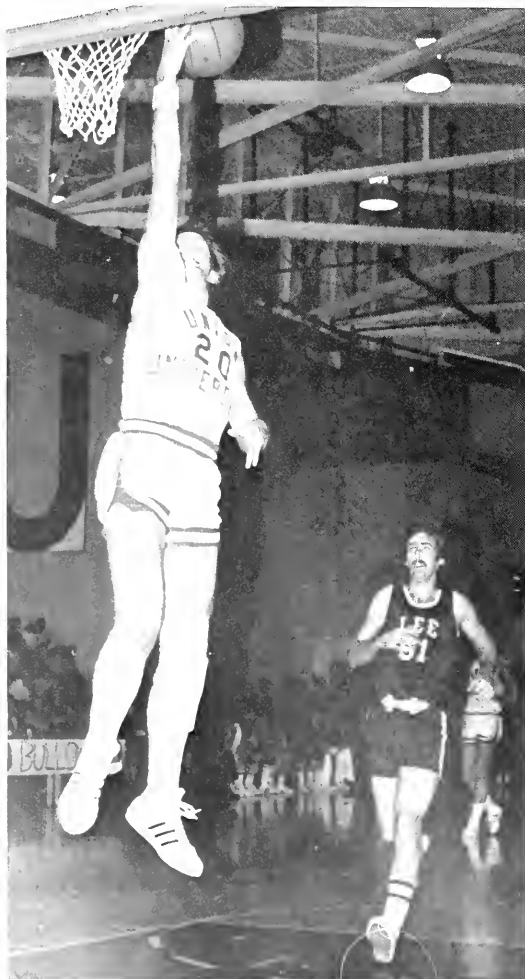

Richard Rice points out the offender.

The highlight of the year was the Union victory and winning of first place in the Bicentennial Exchange Club Tournament at the Jackson Coliseum. The Bulldogs won the first game over Mississippi Industrial 83-70, which set up a championship match with arch rival Lambuth College. The game was no contest, however, as the Bulldogs claimed first place with an 85-67 blowout over the Eagles. Don Crain and Richard Rice were named to the All-Tournament Team.

The Bulldog streak was halted at four when they dropped two on the road, losing to Lee 84-80, and dropping to Central Wesleyan of South Carolina, 83-75. They made up for it at home by upsetting UT-Martin 95-86 in a hard-fought battle.

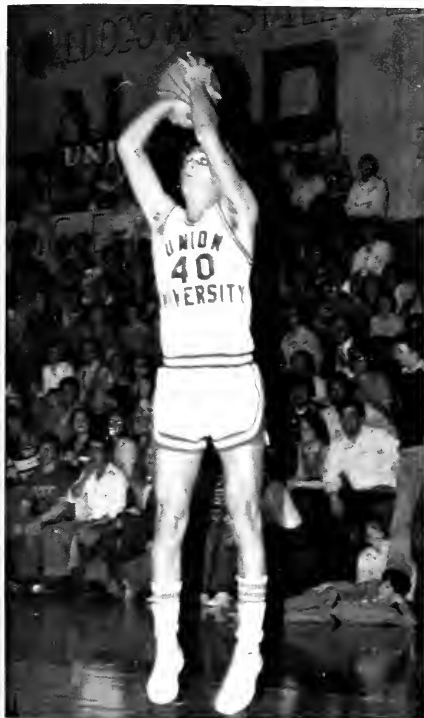

The Bulldogs were again plagued by a loss on the road as they were romped by Freed-Hardeman, 82-68. Union finally grabbed a road win during the Christmas break by edging Southwestern at Memphis, 93-91.

After the Christmas break, the Union Bulldogs travelled to Southwestern at Memphis where they competed in the Dixie Tournament. They made it easily past Millsaps 98-57 and then clinched first place by ousting Greenville, Illinois 94-75. Ed Smith and Ronnie Lofton were selected to the All-Tournament team and Kenny Lloyd was chosen as the Tournament's Most Valuable Player.

Union was then host to LeMoyné-Owen and upset them 94-89. Then the Buccaneers of CBC came to town and were defeated 65-62.

Union picked up two more wins over Trevecca 86-68 and Belmont 84-65 setting the stage for arch rival Lambuth. The visiting Eagles came prepared for a good fight, but left defeated as Union won the contest 73-69.

Then disaster struck as the Bulldogs dropped two close ones to Freed-Hardeman 69-66 and Bethel College 67-62.

Three more were dropped to UT Martin, 79-82; David Lipscomb, 73-79; and Bethel in overtime, 64-68.

The Bulldogs got back on the winning streak, beating Southwestern 73-67. They then travelled to Belmont and pulled out a 67-62 win. Falling off the track once again, they were defeated by CBC 65-77 and Lambuth 85-108.

After an adjustment in the starting lineup, the Bulldogs beat LeMoyné-Owen for the first time ever on the road 88-85. Homecoming brought a victory over David Lipscomb 87-71, and the Bulldogs closed out the regular season beating Trevecca 116-96.

The Bulldogs gained their way to the VSAC tournaments, having their best season in ten years. In the first game, Union downed Lambuth 86-77. They next met first place Bethel and upset them 48-47. Their final match was against LeMoyné-Owen, but the Bulldogs dropped it 76-83. This left Union with an impressive second place in the Western VSAC division.

Young Team Puts Together A Winning Season

Graduation took a heavy toll on the Lady Bulldogs this year. Losing three of five starters, they were forced into a heavy recruiting year. Coach Peggy Birmingham switched starting line-ups all year long searching for the five that played best together.

Undaunted by their relative inexperience, the Lady Bulldogs finally meshed into a powerful unit and continued in the winning tradition of teams past.

Opening their season on the road, the Lady Bulldogs traveled to Southeast Missouri State where they destroyed their hosts by a score of 98-30. Returning home, they next faced Blue Mountain College, pulling out a 98-87 win in the closing minutes.

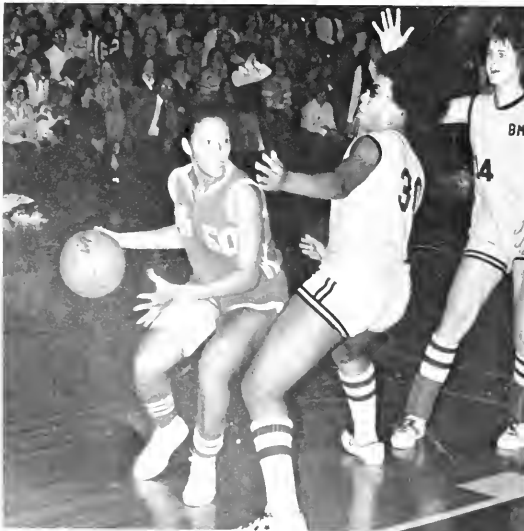

Austin Peay State was the next victim of the team in a 74-69 squeaker. Sporting a 3-0 record, they took on Arkansas State and caused an upset of 86-57. Mississippi Industrial was next to come to town but were blasted 103-71 by a strong Bulldog offense.

The Ladys then hit the road for a three game trip. At the first stop they defeated Maryville 96-57. Their first loss of the season was handed to them by Middle Tennessee State, 80-69. Two nights later they downed Austin Peay 82-54 to boast a 7-1 record at the Christmas break.

Back from the break, the Lady Bulldogs sought revenge as they hosted Middle Tennessee, but the Blue Raiders again proved to be competitive and downed the Lady's 92-84. Union was quick to recover, however, as they next defeated Southern Illinois 79-64 to give Coach Birmingham win number 100 as head of the Lady Bulldogs.

Union picked up an easy win, 88-52, over the University of New Orleans which set the stage for the most exciting game of the season against Lambuth College. In a game which saw the lead seesaw back and forth between the two teams, Sandra Lewis hit a five-foot jump-shot with five seconds left to give the Lady Bulldogs a 91-90 win.

Union then traveled to the University of Alabama/Huntsville where they picked up a second half 82-61 win. The team closed out January by playing Belmont College, beating the Rebelettes 75-63.

Lady Bulldog Colleen Johnson makes a needed basket.

The Lady Bulldogs opened February by dropping a close one, 92-94, at home against Northern Kentucky. They rebounded by ripping the Lady Pacers of UT Martin by the score of 98-65.

In the most offensive game of the year, the Lady's broke their record for most points scored in a game by demolishing the University of Alabama at Huntsville 127-57.

A return match-up with the Belmont Rebelettes proved an easy win 100-67. Lambuth College was next on the slate, being outlasted by the Lady Bulldogs 85-78.

Union barely pulled through a squeaker at Arkansas State, winning in overtime, 86-83. They then closed out the season with two wins on the road at Blue Mountain, 111-70, and UT Martin, 89-69.

Cheerleaders Help Generate Spirit

Leading the spirited crowds at the basketball games are Union University's own Bulldog Cheerleaders. Their role is one that is vital to the amount of spirit that is generated by the spectators.

This year's squad prides themselves on new uniforms, cheers and mounts. Many long hours of practice and planning went into their preparation for the basketball season. They are indeed a part of the team as they are faithful to both the Men and Lady Bulldogs.

Intramurals Are Competitive

The Intramural program is designed for all students who wish to participate in sports within the college community. It provides for physical activity as well as competition among its participants. Flag football, volleyball, softball and basketball are major team efforts, and individual competition is offered as well.

Alpha Tau Omega has the ball.

The Search Goes On—

Nowhere is it written among the archival volumes of learning and knowledge how true wisdom is obtained. As nebulous as air; as undefinable as truth, wisdom is a value, a standard, a commitment—our goal.

To have complete wisdom revealed to us would seem to be the ultimate achievement, but then would not man's eternal quest be over and the thrill of the search be diminished?

Perhaps there is a way we can begin here in college. With the realization that there is much more knowledge in the world and of the world than we could possibly fathom in one lifetime, we start our search. No man has ever understood all. We are not meant to. We must be content with the amount of knowledge we are able to acquire to bring meaning to our existence. Upon this we build our life; we build our faith.

Through this faith we gain the courage necessary to explore new realms and take the dare of more experienced minds than ours. We gain only through careful perception and cautious evaluation. Not all will have meaning for us, but for the sake of experience, can we afford to pass anything by?

Here in these college years the knowledge of one's self is the invaluable tool for our search. We can realize our own capabilities and our own talents. If we refuse to cultivate our abilities, the search is meaningless, and knowledge is gained without the personal satisfaction inherent in learning. We must know our values, our standards, our rules of life. In applying these to learning, keeping a mind open to new ideas, they will help us to perceive much and to utilize it wisely.

Perhaps most important is the realization that all knowledge, and every step in the search for wisdom is possible through faith in the guiding force which brings meaning to our lives. Through the gift of reason we can discern the good and evil, the valuable and the worthless, and the truth and fakery in the world.

We must realize that all knowledge is not ours to comprehend, but the ability to seek it is. We must take advantage of our intellectual surroundings and our spiritual environment to seek wisdom and knowledge. The task is not small nor easy, but the advantages and opportunities before us are innumerable and priceless.

The pursuit of knowledge is not a road easily traveled. The question of purpose and fear of failure often seem as barriers to our goals. Yet each step we take towards gaining wisdom brings us closer to our dreams.

The year 1978 has been but another step. As I reflect upon being Editor of the Lest We Forget, I realize more fully the value of knowledge. The challenge of putting out the best book possible, meeting deadlines, and remembering everything an Editor should was only secondary.

My primary reward came from learning a great deal about myself and those around me. I gained new insights into the field of Journalism that I love so well and experience that will be valuable in years to come.
